
IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES,

FEBRUARY 5, 1827.

Read twice, and referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

AN ACT

For the relief of Thomas Collins.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 Thomas Collins be exonerated from the payment of two hun-
4 dred dollars sixty-seven cents, a balance charged against him
5 by the accounting officers of the Treasury Department, in the 6 settlement of his accounts as Captain in the service of the 7 United States, in the late war; and that a judgment recovered
8 against him, for the same, in the District Court for the West-
9 ern District of Pennsylvania, be released.

February 3, 1827.

Passed the House of Representatives,

Attest,

M. ST. CLAIR CLARKE, C. H. R.
